WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 29, 1	888.

IT IS PLAIN THAT the present plan of assessing city property for purposes of taxation is defective, and in order to secure justice to all and to prevent an unfair discrimination, which must necessarily exist under the present methods, prompt action should be taken. The suggestions made by Assessor Fish in his report are in the line of the proper reform, and their execution would, in a great measure, remove existent difficulties. In the placing of values on property approximating one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, a very slight defection of estimate will cost the city dearly. and it behooves us that we have as assessors men who are capable, honest and trained to their work.

They should be paid salaries in accordance with the responsibility of their positions, and it should be their duty to so equip themselves in the knowledge of what is required of them that when an assessment is made it will not merely be a bit of guess-work, brought to a greater or lesser degree of accuracy by the suggestion of the man who is to pay the taxes on it. There is complaint that the poor man pays proportionately more taxes than the rich man, because his property is assessed at its full value, while the rich man's goes in at one-half or one-third, or whatever value may be satisfactory, and the honesty rather than the ability of the assessor is reflected upon. This complaint is scarcely warranted by the facts, but it is undeniable that the high-priced property is not given a figure quite so near its actual value as is given the low-priced property.

This is owing to the fact that the highpriced property at forced sale never brings, proportionately, as much as lowpriced property, and this fact is used as a basis of estimates. The interests of he meant what he said in his retaliation the people are no more nearly affected than in this matter of taxation, and in parting the same belief to the Irish the arrangement and control of its methods no greater wisdom or better judgment are demanded in any other branch of government. We need the best plans, and the best plans and the question and its determination to the safest conclusion are worthy of the most careful consideration of every good citizen, whether he owns property or does not.

MR. HEWITT says he would like to get out of the New York mayoralty contest, if he could, but he sees no way of doing so except to fight it out. His defeat will this age. be a great disappointment to him but no dishonor.

FOR THE NEXT WEEK the political statisticians will be busy figuring on the probable majorities in the countles in New York State. The consensus of opinion is that the Republicans will come | Fisk 1; plurality for Cieveland, 2. to Harlem bridge with from 70,000 to 75,000 majority. The registration in New 75,000 majority. The registration in New York amounted to 286,551. It is expected that 270,000 votes will be cast. It is said by the Democratic experts that 160,000 of these will be given to Cleve. Special Students—Cleveland 35, Harrison 4, 55, plurality for Harrison, 10. Senior Class—Cleveland 35, Harrison 45, plurality for Harrison, 10. Senior Class—Cleveland 90, Harrison 97, Fisk land and 110,000 for Harrison, giving Cleveland 50,000 majority. From the increased registration in the Democratic wards in Brooklyn, a majority of 25,000 is expected in that city. A majority of 5,000 for Cleveland is looked for in the other counties south of HarlemRiver. The Republicans look for a majority of pot of 137. Republicans look for a majority of not | of 1,171. more than 65,000 south of Harlem.

THE OFFICERS composing the board of inquiry appointed to investigate the mysteries of the Aqueduct tunnel may know a good deal about tunnels, but they have doubtless learned much more about shoddy tunnels in the last few days than they ever had idea or conception of PRESIDENT CLEVELAND had a conference on Saturday with Irish-American leaders, and some interesting developments are promised in regard to Minister West's recent letter. It is evident that something must be done.

THE CANYASS for the Governorship in lilinois is one of peculiar interest this year, both tickets being headed by veteran soldiers-General Palmer, who achieved considerable distinction in the war, upon the Democratic side, and Joseph Fifer, who fought with equal zeal and patriotism, though in the ranks, upon the Republican side. Some confidence is expressed by the Democrats of carrying the State, but such a result is not probable. Of General Palmer's superior fitness for the position in point of experience and ability, however, is not questioned; his great difficulty will be to cupture enough of the enemy to elect

A disparent rhom Augusta, Me., says: "James G. Blaine, jr., read in the morning papers of his wife's illness and was visibly affected." This will reassure those who doubted that the young man was possessed of any feeling whatever.

Mr. Thornz, the Kentucky gentleman who is remembered as baving contested Speaker Carlisto's seat in Congress, is up in the Wilkesbarre district of Pennsylvania multing speeches against John Lynch. The latter gentleman voted against Thoche in his contast, and the Intter proposes to get even with him if he can by defeating him for re-election. lay

There are numerous Knights of Labor in that district, with whom Thoebe is supposed or supposes himself to have considerable influence, and it may be that he will make trouble for Lynch, who hasn't much of a margin to go on.

CHINA NOW THREATENS retaliation. But we do not fear China. She is big and rich, but we do not care. She can kick all she pleases and declare war, if she wants to. We do not fear. What if she does want to fight and sends her forces over here to whip us! We have no coast defenses, but that is of no moment. We have laws which say positively no Chinaman shall land on our shores and if the bloody Celestials come over we shall inform them they cannot land and send them back at their own expense. That's the kind of a country we are What's the use of an Exclusion Treaty if it does not exclude? Perhaps the Chinese Minister would like to write a letter to one of his countrymen in Cali fornia. Perhaps he doesn't. But if he does, let him.

A CANVASS HAS BEEN made of the soldier Democrats in the Departments. As far as the canvasser has gone it is shown that there are 927 ex-soldiers in the War Department, 208 in the Navy Department, 816 in the Interior Department, 60 in the Sixth Auditor's office, 153 in the Postoffice Department, 53 in the State Department, 500 in the Government Printing Office, and 512 in the Trensury Department. This is only a partial list, but yet it foots up a total of 3,324.

ALEXANDER JONAS, the Socialist candi date for Mayor of New York, has published his letter of acceptance. He denounces in general terms the municipal departments, and lays it all "not so much to the persons as to the system-the accursed system of our entire social order."

THE PENA AND RIO GRANDE STAGE WAS robbed on Saturday by a man with a revolver and Winchester rifle. Sergeant Fulmer and Wm. D. Wyant, of the United States Army, were among the passengers. Quite a commentary on the bravery of our soldiers.

IT IS STATED that Lord Sackville will be recalled within three days or diplomatic relations between the head of the British Legation and the State Department will be broken off. ## The Kaiser Welcomed Home,

A municipal deputation, in waiting upon the Emperor William Saturday, presented an address of welcome on the occasion of his return home, and were startled by emphatic remarks in the course of the Emperor's reply, on the in the course of the Emperor's reply, on the seandal and gossip of the press, affecting the Imperial family. In concluding his remarks the Emperor observed that he was about to move to Berlin, and he requested the delegation to see that less was written about his change of residence. The deputation requested permission to erect on the Schlosspiatz, in memory of the Emperor's visit to Vienna and Rome, a fountain designed by Professor Begas, the artist. The Emperor expressed his gratincation and interest in the undertaking.

The Emperor and Empress of Germany were resent Saturday at the consecration of the Church of the Holy Ghost, which was founded church of the Holy Ghoot, which was founded by Frederick. The church is near the Belle alliance Platz, and when finlshed will be one of the fluest edifices in Berlin. Pastor Stage took them over the building.
